CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

The conference will cover an array of topics including changes in trauma care, Prehospital whole blood administration, orthopedic trauma management, interesting trauma case reviews, geriatric trauma care and burn management. The objective of the conference is to provide useful approaches and best practices in the management of trauma patients and as the population changes and care evolves.

The intended audience is physicians, nurses, prehospital care providers and others interested in trauma care.

We hope that after attending this course you will leave with new enthusiasm for the advances recently being made in trauma and that this symposium will improve care and allow your patients to experience healthier lives.
