Innovation starts with inspiration.
And we're inspired.

By creating a community unified around a single passion:
To help patients live longer, healthier and more productive lives.

By working with clinicians to solve unmet needs and make meaningful differences across the healthcare system.

By evolving a portfolio of breakthrough technologies with a patients-first mindset.

Cardiovascular

HEART FAILURE IS A COMPLEX, PROGRESSIVE DISEASE THAT IS DIFFICULT TO MANAGE

Proactively identify your patient's heart failure progression and their available treatment options

STAGES OF HEART FAILURE AND TREATMENT OPTIONS¹

Conference overview and intended audience

The AHN Cardiovascular Institute is pleased to offer this exciting educational opportunity to highlighting new innovations and approach to a broad spectrum of cardiovascular diseases. This conference will provide updates in a variety of areas, including hyperlipidemia, long COVID cardiovascular manifestations, cardiac amyloidosis and sarcoidosis, women's cardiovascular health, structural heart procedures, approach to diagnosis of coronary disease with imaging modalities, pericardial disease, outpatient management of hypertrophic cardiomyopathy, and more. This event is ideal for attendees across multiple vascular and cardiac disciplines, including cardiologists, and cardiac/vascular surgeons, primary care physicians, medicine subspecialty providers, fellow and resident trainees, and NP/PA/extenders.

Conference objectives

- Discuss and identify innovative approaches to an array of cardiovascular diseases
- Evaluate the impact of lifestyle and patient education on preventing and managing cardiovascular disease
- Discuss the role of emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence
- Review the latest research, updates, strategies and interventions in cardiovascular diseases
- Describe health care disparities in cardiovascular health

CME accreditation

Allegheny General Hospital is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Allegheny General Hospital designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.75 *AMA PRA Category 1 Credits*TM.
