SNYDER AUDITORIUM AND ZOOM

THIS ACTIVITY IS DESIGNED TO HELP YOU:

- Describe complex and disenfranchised bereavement processes of families and clinicians in the aftermath of a drug-related death
- State patterns of clinician-family relationships during bereavement
- Describe the criteria for determining suitability-for patients, families and clinicians-of a palliative approach to severe substance use disorders
- State some ways in which the arts may serve as a therapeutic medium for family members and clinicians in the setting of patient death
